FRRC “Free the Vote” Bus Tour Stops in Orange County in Honor of Second Chance Month

COVID-19 testing, fines and fees information and more included as Florida Rights Restoration Coalition partners with organizations like the Orlando Magic to honor Second Chance Month with its latest statewide bus tour in support of returning citizens (people with past felony convictions)

Orlando, FL (April 8, 2021) – On Saturday, April 10th, the Florida Rights Restoration Coalition (FRRC) is arriving in Orlando on its statewide bus tour in honor of Second Chance Month. In partnership with local organizations like the Orlando Magic, FRRC will stop at the Experience Christian Center, where the organization and local partners will be providing a fun, family-friendly opportunity for returning citizens to get the resources and support that they need to fully restore their civil rights, and reintegrate into the community. This will include giving receipts to returning citizens who had their voting rights restored through the payment of their fines and fees, voter registration and more.

The FRRC bus will be at Orlando’s Experience Christian Center at 12:00 pm ET, with interested attendees requested to arrive by 12:30 pm ET.

WHO: FRRC Orlando Members
Desmond Meade, Executive Director
Neil Volz, Deputy Director

WHAT: A statewide bus tour stopping in Orlando, honoring Second Chance Month by engaging and energizing the returning citizen community, their families and their friends with:

- Fines and fees receipts and information
- Housing resources for returning citizens
- The latest information on clemency and restoration of civil rights
- Information and help with driver’s licenses

- Voter registration
- COVID-19 testing
- Orlando Magic material
- And more!

There will be the opportunity for attendees to score special giveaways. The event will be outdoors and socially distanced, with masks and PPE provided by FRRC.

WHEN: Saturday, April 10, 2021, 12:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.
Please arrive by 12:30 p.m.
